

FOUNDED BY
JEREMY CORBYN

The Peace and Justice Project is recruiting a new member of staff to join the Communications and Campaign team. The aim of the role is to help the Project deliver high level campaigns and strategic communications supporting exciting work streams of research and activism work.

Job details: Campaigns and Communications Officer

- £28,000 - £32,000
- Full Time (some weekend work required)
- Flexible working from home/office
- Fixed Term Contract for 6 months (to be extended)
- Start date: In April 2021
- Interviews will take place mid-March 2021.
- Please apply by sending a cover letter and CV to: info@thecorbynproject.com FAO Chloe Schlosberg
- Closing date: Friday 5th March 2021, 12pm

Specific Responsibilities:

The post-holder will

- be responsible for implementing campaign and communications strategies
- have responsibility for delivering successful grassroots campaigns.
- Promote the PPJ's research and networks around the world.
- Manage/coordinate actions related to research.
- Work with partner organisations, institutions, and promote opportunities for collaboration.
- Develop campaigns linking policy and activism.

Personal Specification:

- Experience of developing and implementing creative campaigns nationally.
- Experience in developing high quality communication and campaign materials.
- Experience in ensuring impact and success in targeting the key areas for delivery.
- Proven track record in engaging with a wide range of people from activist, political, research and development networks.

- Strong knowledge of campaign lifecycles
- Excellent planning and organisational skills.
Excellent IT/digital/social media skills.
- Excellent interpersonal skills
- Experience in political engagement is desirable.

Main Responsibilities

- To develop and lead on the implementation of campaigns and communication strategies.
- To coordinate the delivery of specific movement-wide campaigns and communications strategies and actions.
- Identify common objective campaigns.
- Devise high quality campaign and communications materials in a clear, concise, and compelling format.
- Set priorities and objectives, preparing work plans with targets, monitoring progress and delivery.
- Develop materials (for external and internal use) to include campaign ideas and actions, campaign digests, web features, blogs, op-eds, public statements, and audio-visual and social media content.
- To research and evaluate the most effective ways to campaign and communicate.
- To facilitate effective and timely relationships /communications with supporters of the Project.
- To participate and contribute to the overall development of the Project's aims and structure.
- Contribute to maintaining budgets.
- Any other reasonable request from the Project Director and Advisory Board.